Title	Schrole ETAS Complaints and Appeals policy			Document Controller	General Manager Operations

Preamble

This policy will provide guidelines and procedures to ensure ETAS (WA) Pty Ltd and any and all of its trading names and subsidiaries (referred to as Schrole ETAS and ETAS Group) continues to meet the requirements of the National Vocational Education and Training – Standards for Registered Training Organisations 2015 in respect to Complaints and Appeals.

Purpose and Policy Statement

This policy is to manage and respond to allegations involving the conduct of:

- a) the Schrole ETAS's trainers, assessors or other staff;
- b) a third party providing services on the behalf of Schrole ETAS, its trainers, assessors, or other staff; or
- c) a learner of the Schrole ETAS, and
- d) to manage requests for a review of decisions, including assessment decisions, made by Schrole ETAS or a third party providing services on Schrole ETAS's behalf.

Scope

Complaints and appeals against decisions of Schrole ETAS may be made by staff, students or external entities and as such this policy applies to all stakeholders.

This policy aims to ensure that:

- any appeals and complaints are resolved in a constructive manner;
- students feel satisfied that there is a process in place to deal with any appeals or complaints and that any appeals or complaints are handled satisfactorily;
- an environment of fairness and trust is maintained;
- the root causes of any complaints are identified and addressed to allow for continuous improvement and to avoid recurrence of the complaint.

Definitions

- Complaint means a grievance in relation to dissatisfaction with procedures or quality of service provided by Schrole ETAS in relation to any internal policy or procedure such as enrolment, quality of training or assessment, issues relating to staff members, amenities, resources or discrimination, sexual harassment.
- Appeal means a process whereby a decision has been made by Schrole ETAS assessor in which a student or staff member are unhappy, and they would like the decision to be reviewed. An appeal of a decision could relate to assessment outcomes, deferral, suspension, cancellation or any other decision that has been made which affects the appellant. An appeal refers to a dispute or request to reconsider any decision made by Schrole ETAS, regardless of the context
- Appellant means the person who has made an appeal against a Schrole ETAS decision
- Complainant means a person who has made a complaint to Schrole ETAS

General Policy Information

As a result of the delivery of training and assessment services offered by Schrole ETAS, it is acknowledged that issues, concerns or complaints may arise that need resolution. All stakeholders of Schrole ETAS training and assessment services have the right to lodge an appeal or complaint if they are dissatisfied with the services provided, the purpose of this Complaints and Appeals Policy is to offer transparency and fairness to all stakeholders in this process. Before instituting an appeal or making a complaint, where reasonable it is preferred that the person or people concerned attempt resolution through discussion.

Complaints and appeals may be lodged anonymously and can be made on behalf of a student by friends, family or other organisation. In the event that they are provided, details of the person appealing or making any complaints will be kept confidential. They will not intentionally be communicated to other students or people outside the organisation except in the case of government agencies and departments requesting the information or performing an audit.

There will be no charge for making a complaint or lodging an appeal.

A complaint should:

- Clearly outline the circumstances resulting in dissatisfaction with the training and assessment services provided;

- Indicate whether the complainant wishes to be involved in further dialogue regarding the complaint;
- Confirm whether the complainant would like to be informed about actions taken or decisions made as a result of their complaint; and
- (Where possible) indicate any outcome/s sought.

Valid grounds for submitting an appeal may include, but are not limited to the following claims in relation to decisions made:

- Incorrect advice from any person making a decision pertaining to training and assessment services within Schrole ETAS;
- Incorrect advice from the assessor regarding the assessment process;
- Bias of the assessor;
- The proficiency of the trainer and/or assessor;
- Any perceived discrimination;
- Inappropriate assessment process for the competency being assessed; and/or
- Faulty or inappropriate equipment or resources

An appeal should:

- Clearly state the grounds on which the appeal is based;
- Indicate the outcome sought;
- Be signed by the applicant; and
- Include, wherever possible, any evidence available to support the claim.

Complaints and appeals will be viewed as a constructive contribution to continuous improvement of Schrole ETAS's operations. Where the appeal or complaint results in discovery of a weakness in Schrole ETAS's operations, policies and procedures should change as a result.

The Appeals and Complaints policy will be made known to individuals through electronic dissemination on the Schrole ETAS website and pre-enrolment information. It is the Chief Operations Officer's responsibility to ensure that this happens. New students and staff will be reminded of this policy during orientation, and a summary of this policy will be freely available in the Client and Staff Handbook.

Principles of fairness will be exercised throughout the complaint/appeals process:

- There will be no discrimination as a result of making a complaint
- Complaints and appeal processes will be transparent, equitable, objective and unbiased
- The principles of natural justice and procedural fairness will be upheld at all times
- The process will be accessible to all; thus, all staff need to be aware that people with limited English proficiency, special needs etc., may need extra assistance with the complaints/appeals process

Flowchart

Relationship to the continuous improvement process

Often improvements will be identified as an outcome of either a complaint or appeal. These are to be linked to the continuous improvement system by raising a continuous improvement report for the complaint or appeal outcome, which denotes actions and deliverables to be addressed.

Breaches of Policy

Any person who is found to have breached this policy or the legislation to which this policy applies will be disciplined and may be subject to further criminal prosecution.
