TAE40116 Certificate IV in Training and Assessment eligibility requirements

The Certificate IV in Training and Assessment qualification is our most popular course and therefore it is important that we are clear about the entry requirements for this program.

This qualification focuses on designing and conducting training and assessment activities in the Vocational Training Industry. ETAS Group has contextualised this program specifically for the resources and construction industry. The learning program and the case studies/scenarios in the course require a level of knowledge of the resources/construction industry and of training and assessing in the workplace.

This qualification is suitable for people working in a training or assessment role in the resources/construction industry. People attending the course are required to demonstrate a substantial level of knowledge and skill in training and assessment prior to acceptance on to the program; this is achieved through the submitting of a self-assessment, third party (employer) endorsement and supporting documentation (CV and Job Description) along with your application form.

Those entering this program must be able to demonstrate vocational competency in their proposed teaching and assessing area. Vocational competency is defined as broad industry knowledge and experience, and may include, but is not limited to, holding a relevant unit of competency or qualification.

This program is only for participants who have been nominated by their employers to become on-the-job trainers/assessors as they have been deemed to have suitable vocational competence/subject matter expertise for their area of training delivery/assessment. Please see the linked application form for further details: TAE Application Form. If you have not been nominated by your employer, please contact our team prior to enrolling.

Our Facilitators

Our facilitators are highly experienced having been trained at the highest level. All our trainers and assessors hold the necessary qualifications to train and assess in the VET sector.

Our facilitators will be available to assist you throughout your studies regardless of which mode of training you are participating in. This is to ensure you have the best opportunity to successfully reach your study goals.

Selection and Induction

Programs offered publicly are open to all learners, subject to any pre-requisites or special enrolment conditions that apply to a specific program. An application must be made by completion of the enrolment form. Clients will be made aware of the contents of the program, any special conditions, and the assessment requirements prior to enrolment.

Competency Based Training

Qualifications are comprised of Units of Competency, which have been determined by the relevant industry bodies and categorised into National Competency Standards for specific industry areas.

The Standards provide a framework for training and assessment and specify what Competencies an employee at a particular level within a particular industry should be reasonably expected to achieve.

Competency is defined as:

"Competency is the consistent application of knowledge and skill to the standard of performance required in the workplace. It embodies the ability to transfer and apply skills and knowledge to new situations and environments."

Flexible Delivery

Flexible delivery means providing training when it best suits the client and / or employer.

Flexible delivery focuses on learning rather than teaching and to provide the best possible learning experience for the client. This means that the client has greater control over what, when and how they learn.

Recognition of competencies issued by other RTOs (Credit Transfer)

As per clause 3.5 of the Standards for RTO's 2015; ETAS will accept and provide credit to learners for units of competency where these are evidenced by either an AQF certification document issued by any other RTO or AQF authorised issuing organisation, or, an authenticated VET transcript issued by the Registrar.

Please request a copy of our Recognition Policy for further information or speak to one of our team.

Version	November 2017	Page 6 of 18
Title	Client Handbook

Recognition of Prior Learning

Recognition of prior learning is simply a form of assessment of a learner's competence. Recognition of prior learning uses evidence from formal, non-formal and informal learning (rather than from specific assessment activities directed by ETAS). This evidence is often combined with assessment activities sometimes known as 'challenge testing'. As such, recognition of prior learning must be conducted with the same rigour as any other form of assessment and meet the principles of assessment and rules of evidence (see ETAS Assessment Policy).

RPL can be used to determine advanced standing or to determine a reduction in learning duration, within a training program, or could be used a process to bypass learning altogether.

In all cases, the onus is on the client to document and present a convincing case to justify a claim for RPL. Clients are to be advised that their enrolment will be cancelled and fees forfeited after 12 months of inactivity in any RPL process.

Clients seeking RPL must complete an application form, and provide documentation to support that application. All learners at ETAS are entitled to apply for recognition in the course or qualification in which they are currently or wish to be enrolled in. It is recommended that the application for recognition be made as soon as possible to avoid any fee alterations or unnecessary training. Please request a copy of our Recognition Policy for further information or speak to one of our team.

Assessment

Assessment is defined as "the process of gathering and judging evidence in order to decide whether a person has achieved a standard or objective."

In simple terms, Assessment is the process of collecting evidence and making judgements on whether competency has been achieved. To achieve a 'COMPETENT' outcome you must satisfactorily complete all the requirements of your Unit of Competency. This means that you are assessed in terms of being able to do the job to the required industry standard.

Assessment, within competency-based approaches to learning, is criterion referenced. This means it identifies an individual's achievements of defined outcomes, rather than relating their performance to that of other learners or trainees.

Assessment methods used may include:

- a) Demonstration
- b) Observation
- c) Work samples
- d) Workbook activities
- e) Oral presentations
- f) Role-plays
- g) Simulation
- h) Projects
- i) Written tests

Principles of assessment

PRINCIPLES OF ASSESSMENT
Fairness	The individual learner’s needs are considered in the assessment process. Where appropriate, reasonable adjustments are applied by ETAS to consider the individual learner’s needs. ETAS informs the learner about the assessment process, and provides the learner with the opportunity to challenge the result of the assessment and be reassessed if necessary.
Flexibility	Assessment is flexible to the individual learner by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflecting the learners needs; • Assessing competencies held by the learner no matter how or where they have been acquired; and • Drawing from a range of assessment methods and using those that are appropriate to the context, the unit of competency and associated assessment requirements, and the individual
Validity	Any assessment decision of ETAS is justified, based on the evidence of performance of the individual learner. Validity requires: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Assessment against unit (s) of competency and the associated assessment requirements covers the broad range of skills and knowledge that are essential to competent performance • Assessment of knowledge and skills is integrated with their practical application • Assessment to be based on evidence that demonstrates that a learner could demonstrate these skills and knowledge in other similar situations; and • Judgement of competence is based on evidence of learner performance that is aligned to the units of competency and associated assessment requirements
Reliability	Evidence presented for assessment is consistently interpreted and assessment results are comparable irrespective of the assessor conducting the assessment

Language, Literacy and Numeracy (LLN)

To assist in identifying any special learning needs, ETAS Group may ask that you provide us with information regarding your Language, Literacy and Numeracy skills on your enrolment form or prior to the start of the training program. As ETAS Group predominantly works directly with organisations, often learner needs will be highlighted by the employer/manager and actions/support will be put in place prior to attendance.

Access and Equity (Reasonable Adjustment)

ETAS Group is committed to providing opportunities to all people for advancement, regardless of their background. We support government policy initiatives and provide access to our training for all those seeking to undertake it.

We ensure that our client selection criteria are non-discriminatory and provide fair access to training for the disadvantaged. In addition, we liaise with agencies and government departments for assistance in matters of language, literacy and numeracy difficulties.

Trainers and assessors apply the principle of reasonable adjustment where it is relevant and appropriate. If a learner/client has a concern or query about an issue they should speak with the trainer in the first instance or any member of the ETAS Group team.

Where a learner identifies as a person with special and/or specific needs requiring reasonable adjustment, then strategies contained in the Government of Western Australia, Department of Training and Workforce Development, Reasonable adjustment: A guide to working with students with disability, 2nd Edition 2013, will be reviewed and used where appropriate.

Student Support

Where there is perceived difficulty in achieving learning goals, discussion with the student will be encouraged. Information will be provided about possible alternative pathways to achieve goals, options/choice to overcome barriers and ways to access a supportive network. This information will vary according to the individual needs of the student.

ETAS Group will identify learner needs and offer the following support services:

- Mentoring sessions with an ETAS facilitator where required
- Internal IT support
- Learning materials printed in larger size where required
- Reasonable adjustment during assessments
- Limited Language, Literacy and Numeracy support internally, or referral to external agencies such as the Australian Dyslexia Association, Read Write Now, Reading and Writing Hotline, TIS – Translation and Interpreting Service
- Referral to external agencies for mental health and general well-being such as ACA-Australian Counselling Association, Beyond Blue, Life without barriers, Lifeline, Mission Australia, National Disability Services, Senses, VISABILITY (formally the Association for the Blind of WA) and the WA Deaf Society Inc.

Records Management

We maintain records of training and assessment for every learner. If a learner does not have an up-to-date copy of their training record (indicating progress) they are welcome to request one from the trainer or administration at any stage. In the event that a learner needs a replacement Statement of Attainment or qualification after they have completed training, they must submit a written request to administration. (There may be additional costs for re-prints that have been lost or destroyed by students)

Occupational Safety and Health

ETAS Group is committed to implementing, maintaining and continuously improving Occupational Safety and Health in all of its training locations. The management of ETAS Group recognises that it has a responsibility to provide and maintain a safe environment for staff, clients and visitors alike.

This responsibility, obligation and involvement is transmitted to all staff to ensure a safe and healthy workplace is maintained.

Any breaches of discipline will result in the client being given a 'verbal warning'. Further breaches will result in a client being asked to 'show cause' as to why they should not be excluded from further participation in the program. A third breach will result in instant removal from the training environment.

Where a client is removed from the training environment for a breach of discipline all fees paid will be non-refundable.

Appeals and Complaints

Clients have the right to submit an Appeal (including Academic Appeals) or Complaint in writing, if they feel that they have been unfairly treated in some way. Complaints are welcomed as a means of ensuring that we identify and overcome problems faced by clients, and provide an opportunity to improve our business and/or the delivery of our training programs.

An Appeal or Complaint should be lodged as soon as possible in writing on an Appeal/Complaint Form addressed to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO). These forms are available on request or from our website.

ETAS Group CEO or their nominated representative will conduct an investigation, assess the situation and take appropriate action.

If the complaint is related to training, the CEO will arrange a meeting with the trainer and client to discuss the issue and seek resolution. Appeals or complaints related to administration matters will be investigated openly and as quickly as possible to resolve the issue.

In the event of an appeal or complaint against ETAS Group trainers and/or assessors involving an alleged breach of civil law, the matter should be reported in the same way so that the appropriate action may be taken. If the issue is not resolved to the satisfaction of the complainant, the matter will be referred to the appropriate authority.

ETAS Group supports the rights of a client to lodge a grievance or complaint and will not impair that right in any way. ETAS Group will do everything possible to address all grievances or complaints in an unbiased and professional manner.

Issuance of Certification, Testamurs, Statements of Attainment

All ETAS Group graduates who have completed a program of learning that leads to the award of an AQF qualification are entitled to receive the following certification documentation on award of their qualification:

- A testamur, and
- A record of results.

Students who complete part of the requirements of an AQF qualification in which they are enrolled are also entitled to receive a record of results.

The issuance of a Statement of Attainment recognises that students do not always study a whole AQF qualification. They may choose to complete only a unit or selection of units of competence with ETAS Group. Students who enroll into and complete a unit or selection of units are to be issued either a Statement of Attainment or a Record of Results. The ETAS Group Statement of Attainment is in a form that ensures it cannot be mistaken for a testamur for a full AQF qualification and includes the statement 'A statement of attainment is issued when an individual has completed one or more accredited units'.

Eligible learners and timeframes

ETAS Group will only issue AQF certification documentation to a learner whom we have assessed as meeting the requirements of the training product as specified in the relevant training package, this award will be issued within 30 calendar days of the learner being assessed as meeting the requirements of the training product, and providing all agreed fees the learner owes to ETAS Group have been paid.

Unique Student Identifier Compliance

ETAS Group will not issue AQF certification documentation to an individual without being in receipt of a verified Student Identifier for that individual, unless an exemption applies under the Student Identifiers Act 2014.

Replacement / Re-issue of documentation

ETAS Group permits the replacement of certification documentation upon application to administration and confirmation of previously awarded documentation.

Legislative Compliance

ETAS Group is subject to a variety of legislation which can impact on our training and assessment practices as well as general business practices. This legislation includes:

Discrimination

Discrimination means treating a person less favourably than another because of a personal attribute that they may have. Under State and Federal equal opportunity laws, discrimination based on attributes is unlawful. The attributes that can initiate a discrimination claim include:

- a) Gender
- b) Age
- c) Race
- d) Religion
- e) Marital status
- f) Disability
- g) Nationality
- h) Ethnicity
- i) National origin

It is ETAS Group policy to ensure that these attributes are discounted when employment or training decisions are made.

Harassment

Harassment is any behaviour which is unwelcome, offends, humiliates or intimidates the person being harassed. The most common form of harassment is sexual harassment. Examples of sexual harassment include, but are not limited to:

- a) Unwanted touching
- b) Sexual innuendo
- c) Sexual propositions
- d) Nude pin-ups and posters
- e) Obscene telephone calls
- f) Wolf whistles

Sexual or any other form of harassment will not be tolerated at ETAS Group and disciplinary action will be taken against any employee or student involved in such behaviour. From a staff perspective this may include termination of employment and from a student perspective, removal from a training course.

Types of harassment

There are many types of harassment. These can range from direct forms such as abuse, threats, name calling and sexual advances; to less direct forms such as the creation of a hostile work environment, but no direct attacks are made on an individual.

Examples of verbal harassment

- a) Sexual comments, advances or propositions
- b) Lewd jokes or innuendos
- c) Racist comments or jokes
- d) Spreading rumours
- e) Comments or jokes about a person's disability, pregnancy, sexuality, age religion etc
- f) Repeated questions about one's personal life
- g) Belittling someone's work or contribution in a meeting
- h) Threats, insults or abuse
- i) Repeated unwelcome invitations

Version	November 2017	Page 15 of 18
Title	Client Handbook

- h) Standing very close to someone or unnecessarily leaning over them
- i) Mimicking someone with a disability
- j) Practical jokes that are unwelcome
- k) Ignoring someone, or being cold and distant with them
- l) Crude hand or body gestures

Examples of physical harassment

- a) Unwelcome physical contact such as kissing, hugging, pinching, patting, touching, and brushing up against a person
- b) Indecent or sexual assault or attempted assault
- c) Hitting, pushing, shoving, spitting, and throwing objects at a person
- d) Unzipping a person's attire

What to do if you are harassed

If you feel that you are being harassed, tell the person to stop, that their behaviour is unacceptable and that they must not do it again. It is important to say these things to the person harassing as they may interpret silence as some form of acceptance or consent. If, however, you are too frightened or embarrassed to say anything, this does not mean that your complaint will be treated any less seriously.

If the behaviour does not stop, or even if it does but you still wish to report it, tell the Chief Executive Officer. It is a good idea to make a written note of any harassment, including details of dates, times, witnesses, what happened and what you said or felt. Be frank and honest with whoever is appointed to investigate your complaint, as this will enable the appropriate action to be taken.

What ETAS Group will do

It is ETAS Group's legal responsibility to ensure that harassment does not happen in the workplace. If it does occur, the company will take complaints of harassment very seriously. The complaint will be investigated in a sympathetic, fair and confidential manner. Action will be taken to ensure that the harassment stops. Appropriate warning or disciplinary action will be taken where harassment is found to have occurred.

You will not be victimised or treated unfairly for making a harassment complaint.

Responsibilities of Contractors/Staff (Employees)

Employees are legally obliged to ensure that they do not harass other employees, managers, supervisors or clients of ETAS Group. Employees must also ensure that they do not encourage harassment.

If you become aware that someone you work with is being harassed, you can assist them in a number of ways. Tell them that you are willing to act as a witness if they decide to make a complaint. Back them or support them in saying 'no' to the person harassing them. However, it is not your responsibility to say anything to the alleged harasser or speak with others about the alleged harassment. Remember, if you are deemed to be spreading rumours about anyone, you may be the subject of a defamation action.

Unique Student Identifier (USI)

Every year, an estimated three million Australians build and sharpen their skills by undertaking nationally recognised training. From 1 January 2015, all students doing national recognised training need to have a Unique Student Identifier (USI).

A USI is a reference number made up of numbers and letters. Creating a USI is free. It creates a secure online record of your nationally recognised training that you can access anytime and anywhere, and it's yours for life.

The USI is linked to the National Vocational Education and Training (VET) Data Collection, and this means an individual's nationally recognised training and qualifications gained anywhere in Australia, from different training organisations, will be kept all together.

How to Obtain a USI

It is free and easy to create your own USI.

- Step 1 Have at least one (1) or preferably two (2) forms of ID ready from the list below:
- Driver's Licence
 - Medicare Card
 - Australian Passport
 - Visa (with Non-Australian Passport) for international students
 - Birth Certificate (Australian)
 - Certificate of Registration by Descent
 - Citizenship Certificate
 - Immi Card.

Important: To ensure we keep all of your training records together, the USI will be linked to your name as it appears on the form of ID you used to create the USI. The personal details entered when you create a USI must match exactly with those on your form of ID. If you do not have proof of ID from the list above, you can contact ETAS Group about the other forms of ID we can accept to help you get a USI.

- Step 2 Have your personal contact details ready (such as; email address, mobile number or address).
- Step 3 Visit the USI website at: www.usi.gov.au
- Step 4 Select the 'Create a USI' link and follow the steps.
- Step 5 Agree to the Terms and Conditions.
- Step 6 Follow the instructions to create a USI – it should only take a few minutes. Upon completion, the USI will be displayed on the screen. It will also be sent to your preferred method of contact.
- Step 7 You should then write down the USI and keep it somewhere handy and safe.

If you have any questions or require assistance you can visit the website www.usi.gov.au or contact the Department of Industry by email on: usi@industry.gov.au or alternatively, if you would like assistance in obtaining a USI please contact us for assistance.
