Definitions

- Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF) means the framework for regulated qualifications in the Australian education and training system.
- AQF Certification means the set of official documents that confirms that an AQF qualification or statement of attainment has been issued to an individual.
- AQF Qualification means an AQF qualification type endorsed in a training package or accredited in a VET accredited course.
- Credit is the value assigned for the recognition of equivalence in content and learning outcomes between different types of learning and/or qualifications. Credit reduces the amount of learning required to achieve a qualification and may be through credit transfer, articulation, recognition of prior learning or advanced standing. (Excerpt from <http://www.aqf.edu.au/wp-content/uploads/2013/06/Credit-Transfer-Explanation.pdf>)
- Credit Transfer (CT) is a process that provides students with agreed and consistent credit outcomes for components of a qualification based on identified equivalence in content and learning outcomes between matched qualifications. (Excerpt from <http://www.aqf.edu.au/wp-content/uploads/2013/06/Credit-Transfer-Explanation.pdf>) for the purposes of this policy, ETAS

- Formal learning refers to learning that takes place through a structured program of instruction and is linked to the attainment of an AQF qualification or statement of attainment
- Non-Formal learning refers to learning that takes place through a structured program of instruction, but does not lead to the attainment of an AQF qualification or statement of attainment
- Informal learning refers to learning that results through experience of work-related, social, family, hobby or leisure activities

Procedures

Advice regarding recognition provided to learners

All learners are made aware of the ability to apply for course credit via a RPL/ Credit Transfer application throughout the enrolment and induction process of their nominated course. ETAS Group make information in relation to recognition available to learners through publication of the Client Handbook on www.ETASgroup.edu.au and through verbal advice provided to prospective learners before, during and after the enrolment process.

Eligibility To Apply

All learners at ETAS Group are entitled to apply for recognition in the course or qualification in which they are currently or wish to be enrolled in. It is recommended that the application for recognition be made as soon as possible to avoid any fee alterations or unnecessary training.

Application and Assessment

It is preferable that learners seeking RPL or Credit Transfer are identified throughout the enrolment process via their completed registration and enrolment forms. These forms have provision for the learner to nominate for either RPL or CT. In the situation where a learner does not nominate for RPL or CT, and commences a full program – it will be at the discretion of the trainer/assessor to determine where an opportunity for RPL or CT exists and to make suitable adjustments in consultation with Administration and the Manager of Training and Development.

Credit Transfer (CT)

As per clause 3.5 of the Standards for RTO’s 2015; ETAS Group will accept and provide credit to learners for units of competency where these are evidenced by either an AQF certification document issued by any other RTO or AQF authorised issuing organisation, or, an authenticated VET transcript issued by the Registrar. Learners must not be required to repeat any unit or module in which they have already been assessed as competent, unless a regulatory requirement or license condition (including industry licensing schemes) requires this. Where a learner provides suitable evidence they have successfully completed a unit or module at any RTO, ETAS Group will provide credit for that unit or module.

Before providing credit on the basis of a qualification, statement of attainment or record of results, ETAS Group will authenticate the information in the document (e.g. by contacting the organisation that issued the document and confirming the content is valid).

Decisions as to the validity and approval to grant Credit Transfer for an ETAS Group learner are to be made by a qualified assessor only.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

Recognition of prior learning is simply a form of assessment of a learner's competence. Recognition of prior learning uses evidence from formal, non-formal and informal learning (rather than from specific assessment activities directed by ETAS Group). This evidence is often combined with assessment activities sometimes known as 'challenge testing'. As such, recognition of prior learning must be conducted with the same rigour as any other form of assessment and meets the principles of assessment and rules of evidence (see ETAS Group Assessment Policy).

Under the Standards for RTO's 2015, ETAS Group are obligated to make RPL available to all learners.

To ensure consistency, fairness and transparency, ETAS Group has established a systematic, organisation-wide approach to RPL including policies and procedures that govern implementation.

The RPL process consists of the following stages:

- identifying the evidence required
- providing advice to learners about the process
- providing students with sufficient information to enable them to prepare their evidence to meet the standard required for the RPL assessment process
- assessing using appropriate evidence-gathering methods and tools
- recording the outcome, and
- reporting to key internal and external stakeholders.

RPL Assessments at ETAS Group will be undertaken as per all other assessments, by qualified assessors that possess subject matter expertise.

Appealing application or assessment outcome

As per the ETAS Group Complaints and Appeals Policy, all Not Satisfactory or Not Yet Competent decisions in relation to assessment items are appealable by the learner, this is extended in this policy to include decisions of Not Yet Competent in relation to RPL and decisions of Not Applicable for CT – please refer to the Complaints and Appeals policy for further advice.

Records Management

The management and retention of records in relation to CT and RPL will be as per the Records Management Policy for retention of learner assessments.
