Australian Privacy Principles
Privacy Policy
Table of Contents

Australian Privacy Principle 1 – Open and transparent management of personal information ................................................................. 3

Kinds of personal information collected and held ................................................................. 4

How personal information is collected ............................................................................. 4

How personal information is held .................................................................................... 4

Retention and Destruction of Information ........................................................ ............... 4

Accessing and seeking correction of personal information.................................................. 5

Complaints about a breach of the APPs ............................................................................ 5

Likely overseas disclosures................................................................................................. 5

Making our APP Privacy Policy available .......................................................................... 5

Review and Update of this APP Privacy Policy ................................................................. 5

Australian Privacy Principle 2 – Anonymity and pseudonymity ........................................ 6

Requiring identification...................................................................................................... 6

Australian Privacy Principle 3 – Collection of solicited personal information .................. 6

Australian Privacy Principle 4 – Dealing with unsolicited personal information ................ 6

Australian Privacy Principle 5 – Notification of the collection of personal information ........................................................................ 7

Collection from third parties ............................................................................................. 7

Australian Privacy Principle 6 – Use or disclosure of personal information ....................... 7

Australian Privacy Principle 7 – Direct marketing ................................................................ 8

Australian Privacy Principle 8 – Cross-border disclosure of personal information ............. 8

Australian Privacy Principle 9 – Adoption, use or disclosure of government related identifiers ........................................................................ 8

Australian Privacy Principle 10 – Quality of personal information .................................. 8

Australian Privacy Principle 11 – Security of personal information .................................. 9

Australian Privacy Principle 12 – Access to personal information .................................... 9

Australian Privacy Principle 13 – Correction of personal information ............................. 9

Individual Requests ......................................................................................................... 9

Correcting at ETAS Group’s initiative ................................................................................ 10

‘Request for Records Access’ Procedure ......................................................................... 10

Confirming identity ......................................................................................................... 10

‘Request for Records Update’ Procedure ........................................................................ 11

Assessing Update .......................................................................................................... 11

Privacy Complaints Procedure ......................................................................................... 12
Privacy Policy

ETAS Group is committed to maintaining the privacy and confidentiality of its RTO personnel and participant records. ETAS Group complies with the Privacy Act 1988 including the 13 Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) as outlined in the Privacy Amendment (Enhancing Privacy Protection) Act 2012.

As a component of our risk management practices, ETAS Group has conducted a review of all operations. Mitigation actions from this risk assessment have been implemented for the management of privacy risks at each stage of the information lifecycle, including collection, use, disclosure, storage, destruction and de-identification.

Providing an overall framework for our privacy practices, ETAS Group has developed and implemented this APP Privacy Policy.

ETAS Group manages personal information in an open and transparent way. This is evident in the implementation of practices, procedures and system we outline in this policy, that ensure our compliance with the APPs and any binding registered APP code, and provide suitable procedures for ETAS Group personnel to be able to deal with related inquiries and complaints that may be received from time to time.

The following sections of this policy outline how we manage personal information.

Australian Privacy Principle 1 – Open and transparent management of personal information

Purposes for information collection, retention, use and disclosure

ETAS Group retains a record of personal information about all individuals with whom we undertake any form of business activity. ETAS Group must collect, hold, use and disclose information from our clients and stakeholders for a range of purposes, including but not limited to:

- Providing services to clients;
- Managing employee and contractor teams;
- Promoting products and services;
- Conducting internal business functions and activities; and
- Requirements of stakeholders.

As a state government registered training organisation, regulated by the Training Accreditation Council (TAC), the Australian Quality Training Framework (AQTF) and the Essential Standards and Conditions for Continuing Registration (the Standards), ETAS Group is required to collect, hold, use and disclose a wide range of personal and sensitive information on participants in nationally recognised training programs. This information requirement is outlined in the National Vocational Education and Training Regulator Act 2011 and associated legislative instruments. In particular, the legislative instruments:

- Standards for NVR Registered Training Organisations 2012; and
- Data Provision Requirements 2012.

It is noted that ETAS Group is also bound by various State Government Acts requiring similar information collection, use and disclosure (particularly Vocational Education & Training Act(s) and Traineeship & Apprenticeships Act(s) relevant to state jurisdictions of ETAS Group operations).

It is further noted that, aligned with these legislative requirements, ETAS Group delivers services through a range of Commonwealth and State Government funding contract agreement arrangements, which also include various information collection and disclosure requirements.

Individuals are advised that due to these legal requirements, ETAS Group discloses information held on individuals for valid purposes to a range of entities including:

- Governments (Commonwealth or State);
- Australian Apprenticeships Centres;
- Employers (and their representatives), and
• Statistical data collection authorities i.e., NCVER (national Centre for Vocational Education Research).

Kinds of personal information collected and held

The following types of personal information are generally collected, depending on the need for service delivery:

• Contact details;
• Employment details;
• Educational background;
• Demographic information;
• Course progress and achievement information; and
• Financial billing information.

The following types of sensitive information may also be collected and held:

• Identity details;
• Employee details & HR information;
• Complaint or issue information;
• Disability status & other individual needs;
• Indigenous status; and
• Background checks (such as National Criminal Checks or Working with Children checks).

Where ETAS Group collects personal information of more vulnerable segment of the community (such as children), additional practices and procedures are also followed.

How personal information is collected

ETAS Group’s usual approach to collecting personal information is to collect any required information directly from the individuals concerned. This may include the use of forms (such as registration forms, enrolment forms or service delivery records) and the use of web based systems (such as online enquiry forms, web portals or internal operating systems).

How personal information is held

ETAS Group’s usual approach to holding personal information includes robust storage and security measures at all times. Information on collection is:

• As soon as practical converted to electronic means;
• Stored in secure, password protected systems, such as financial system, learning management system and student management system; and
• Monitored for appropriate authorised use at all times.

Only authorised personnel are provided with login information to each system, with system access limited to only those relevant to their specific role. ETAS Group systems are maintained internally with internal security to physical server locations and server systems access. Virus protection, backup procedures and ongoing access monitoring procedures are in place.

 Destruction of paper based records occurs as soon as practicable in every matter, through the use of secure shredding and destruction services at all ETAS Group sites.

Retention and Destruction of Information

ETAS Group maintains all records according to the TAC Guideline on Records Management documenting the periods for which personal information records are kept.
Specifically for our RTO records, in the event of our organisation ceasing to operate the required personal information on record for individuals undertaking nationally recognised training with us would be transferred to the TAC, as required by law.

Accessing and seeking correction of personal information

ETAS Group confirms all individuals have a right to request access to their personal information held and to request its correction at any time. In order to request access to personal records, individuals are to make contact with:

ETAS Group
Chief Executive Officer
Ground Floor, 142 Hasler Road
Osborne Park WA 6017

A number of third parties, other than the individual, may request access to an individual’s personal information. Such third parties may include employers, parents or guardians, schools, Australian Apprenticeships Centres, Governments (Commonwealth or State) and various other stakeholders.

In all cases where access is requested, ETAS Group will ensure that:

- Parties requesting access to personal information are robustly identified and vetted;
- Where legally possible, the individual to whom the information relates will be contacted to confirm consent (if consent not previously provided for the matter); and
- Only appropriately authorised parties, for valid purposes, will be provided access to the information.

Complaints about a breach of the APPs

If an individual feels that ETAS Group may have breached one of the APPs then they may take action according to the Privacy Complaints Procedure below.

Likely overseas disclosures

ETAS Group confirms that individuals’ personal information is not intended to be disclosed to overseas recipients, for any purpose.

Making our APP Privacy Policy available

Available for distribution free of charge on request, as soon as possible after the request is received, including in any particular format requested by the individual as is reasonably practical.

If, in the unlikely event the APP Privacy Policy is not able to be provided in a particular format requested by an individual, we will explain the circumstances around this issue with the requester and seek to ensure that another appropriate method is provided.

Review and Update of this APP Privacy Policy

ETAS Group reviews this APP Privacy Policy:

- On an ongoing basis, as suggestions or issues are raised and addressed, or as government required changes are identified;
- Through our internal audit processes on at least an annual basis;
- As a part of any external audit of our operations that may be conducted by various government agencies as a part of our registration as an RTO or in normal business activities; and
- As a component of each and every complaint investigation process where the complaint is related to a privacy matter.
Where this policy is updated, changes to the policy are widely communicated to stakeholders through internal personnel communications, meetings, training and documentation, and externally through publishing of the policy on ETAS Group's website and other relevant documentation (such as our Code of Practice) for clients.

Australian Privacy Principle 2 – Anonymity and pseudonymity

ETAS Group provides individuals with the option of not identifying themselves, or of using a pseudonym, when dealing with us in relation to a particular matter, whenever practical. This includes providing options for anonymous dealings in cases of general course enquiries or other situations in which an individuals’ information is not required to complete a request.

Individuals may deal with us by using a name, term or descriptor that is different to the individual’s actual name wherever possible. This includes using generic email addresses that does not contain an individual’s actual name, or generic user names when individuals may access a public component of our website or enquiry forms.

ETAS Group only stores and links pseudonyms to individual personal information in cases where this is required for service delivery (such as system login information) or once the individual’s consent has been received.

Individuals are advised of their opportunity to deal anonymously or by pseudonym with us where these options are possible.

Requiring identification

ETAS Group must require and confirm identification however in service delivery to individuals for nationally recognised course programs. We are authorised by Australian law to deal only with individuals who have appropriately identified themselves. That is, it is a condition of our registration that we identify individuals (Vocational Education and Training (General) Regulations 1996) and their specific individual needs on commencement of service delivery, and collect and disclose Australian Vocational Education and Training Management of Information Statistical Standard (AVETMISS) data on all individuals enrolled in nationally recognised training programs. Other legal requirements, as noted earlier in this policy, also require considerable identification arrangements.

There are also other occasions within our service delivery where an individual may not have the option of dealing anonymously or by pseudonym, as identification is practically required for us to effectively support an individual’s request or need.

Australian Privacy Principle 3 — Collection of solicited personal information

ETAS Group only collects personal information that is reasonably necessary for our business activities.

We only collect sensitive information in cases where the individual consents to the sensitive information being collected, except in cases where we are required to collect this information by law, such as outlined earlier in this policy.

All information we collect is collected only by lawful and fair means.

We only collect solicited information directly from the individual concerned, unless it is unreasonable or impracticable for the personal information to only be collected in this manner.

Australian Privacy Principle 4 – Dealing with unsolicited personal information

ETAS Group may from time to time receive unsolicited personal information. Where this occurs we promptly review the information to decide whether or not we could have collected the information for the purpose of our business activities. Where this is the case, we may hold, use and disclose the information appropriately as per the practices outlined in this policy.

Where we could not have collected this information (by law or for a valid business purpose) we immediately destroy or de-identify the information (unless it would be unlawful to do so).
Australian Privacy Principle 5 – Notification of the collection of personal information

Whenever ETAS Group collects personal information about an individual, we take reasonable steps to notify the individual of the details of the information collection or otherwise ensure the individual is aware of those matters. This notification occurs at or before the time of collection, or as soon as practicable afterwards.

Our notifications to individuals on data collection include:

- ETAS Group’s identity and contact details, including the position title, telephone number and email address of a contact who handles enquiries and requests relating to privacy matters;
- The facts and circumstances of collection such as the date, time, place and method of collection, and whether the information was collected from a third party, including the name of that party;
- If the collection is required or authorised by law, including the name of the Australian law or other legal agreement requiring the collection;
- The purpose of collection, including any primary and secondary purposes;
- The consequences for the individual if all or some personal information is not collected;
- Other organisations or persons to which the information is usually disclosed, including naming those parties;
- Whether we are likely to disclose the personal information to overseas recipients, and if so, the names of the recipients and the countries in which such recipients are located.

Where possible, we ensure that the individual confirms their understanding of these details, such as through signed declarations, website form acceptance of details or in person through questioning.

Collection from third parties

Where ETAS Group collects personal information from another organisation, we:

1. Confirm whether the other organisation has provided the relevant notice above to the individual; or
2. Whether the individual was otherwise aware of these details at the time of collection; and
3. If this has not occurred, we will undertake this notice to ensure the individual is fully informed of the information collection.

Australian Privacy Principle 6 – Use or disclosure of personal information

ETAS Group only uses or discloses personal information it holds about an individual for the particular primary purposes for which the information was collected, or secondary purposes in cases where:

- An individual consented to a secondary use or disclosure;
- An individual would reasonably expect the secondary use or disclosure, and that is directly related to the primary purpose of collection; or
- Using or disclosing the information is required or authorised by law.

Requirement to make a written note of use or disclosure for this secondary purpose

If ETAS Group uses or discloses personal information in accordance with an ‘enforcement related activity’ we will make a written note of the use or disclosure, including the following details:

- The date of the use or disclosure;
- Details of the personal information that was used or disclosed;
- The enforcement body conducting the enforcement related activity;
- If the organisation used the information, how the information was used by the organisation; and
The basis for our reasonable belief that we were required to disclose the information.

Australian Privacy Principle 7 – Direct marketing

ETAS Group does not use or disclose the personal information that it holds about an individual for the purpose of direct marketing, unless:

- The personal information has been collected directly from an individual, and the individual would reasonably expect their personal information to be used for the purpose of direct marketing; or
- The personal information has been collected from a third party, or from the individual directly, but the individual does not have a reasonable expectation that their personal information will be used for the purpose of direct marketing; and
- We provide a simple method for the individual to request not to receive direct marketing communications (also known as ‘opting out’).

On each of our direct marketing communications, ETAS Group provides a prominent statement that the individual may request to opt out of future communications, and how to do so.

An individual may also request us at any stage not to use or disclose their personal information for the purpose of direct marketing, or to facilitate direct marketing by other organisations. We comply with any request by an individual promptly and undertake any required actions for free.

We also, on request, notify an individual of our source of their personal information used or disclosed for the purpose of direct marketing unless it is unreasonable or impracticable to do so.

Australian Privacy Principle 8 – Cross-border disclosure of personal information

ETAS Group does not disclose personal information about an individual to any overseas recipient.

Australian Privacy Principle 9 – Adoption, use or disclosure of government related identifiers

ETAS Group does not adopt, use or disclose a government related identifier related to an individual except:

- In situations required by Australian law or other legal requirements;
- Where reasonably necessary to verify the identity of the individual;
- Where reasonably necessary to fulfil obligations to an agency or a State or Territory authority; or
- As prescribed by regulations.

Australian Privacy Principle 10 – Quality of personal information

ETAS Group takes reasonable steps to ensure that the personal information it collects is accurate, up-to-date and complete. We also take reasonable steps to ensure that the personal information we use or disclose is, having regard to the purpose of the use or disclosure, accurate, up-to-date, complete and relevant. This is particularly important:

- When we initially collect the personal information; and
- When we use or disclose personal information.

We take steps to ensure personal information is factually correct. In cases of an opinion, we ensure information takes into account competing facts and views and makes an informed assessment, providing it is clear this is an opinion. Information is confirmed up-to-date at the point in time to which the personal information relates.

Quality measures in place supporting these requirements include:

- Internal practices, procedures and systems to audit, monitor, identify and correct poor quality personal information (including training staff in these practices, procedures and systems);
- Protocols that ensure personal information is collected and recorded in a consistent format, from a primary information source when possible;
- Ensuring updated or new personal information is promptly added to relevant existing records;
- Reminding individuals to update their personal information at critical service delivery points (such as completion) when we engage with the individual;
- Contacting individuals to verify the quality of personal information where appropriate when it is about to be used or disclosed, particularly if there has been a lengthy period since collection; and
- Checking that a third party, from whom personal information is collected, has implemented appropriate data quality practices, procedures and systems.

Australian Privacy Principle 11 — Security of personal information

ETAS Group takes active measures to consider whether we are able to retain personal information we hold, and also to ensure the security of personal information we hold. This includes reasonable steps to protect the information from misuse, interference and loss, as well as unauthorised access, modification or disclosure.

We destroy or de-identify personal information held once the information is no longer needed for any purpose for which the information may be legally used or disclosed.

Access to ETAS Group offices and work areas is limited to our personnel only - visitors to our premises must be authorised by relevant personnel and are accompanied at all times. With regard to any information in a paper-based form, we maintain storage of records in an appropriately secure place to which only authorised individuals have access.

Regular staff training and information bulletins are conducted with ETAS Group personnel on privacy issues, and how the APPs apply to our practices, procedures and systems. Training is also included in our personnel induction practices.

We conduct ongoing internal audits (at least annually and as needed) of the adequacy and currency of security and access practices, procedures and systems implemented.

Australian Privacy Principle 12 — Access to personal information

Where ETAS Group holds personal information about an individual, we provide that individual access to the information on their request. In processing requests, we:

- Ensure through confirmation of identity that the request is made by the individual concerned, or by another person who is authorised to make a request on their behalf;
- Respond to a request for access:
  - Within 14 calendar days, when notifying our refusal to give access, including providing reasons for refusal in writing, and the complaint mechanisms available to the individual; or
  - Within 30 calendar days, by giving access to the personal information that is requested in the manner in which it was requested.
- Provide information access free of charge.

Australian Privacy Principle 13 – Correction of personal information

ETAS Group takes reasonable steps to correct personal information we hold, to ensure it is accurate, up-to-date, complete, relevant and not misleading, having regard to the purpose for which it is held.

Individual Requests

On an individual’s request, we:

- Correct personal information held; and
Notify any third parties of corrections made to personal information, if this information was previously provided to these parties.

In cases where we refuse to update personal information, we:

- Give a written notice to the individual, including the reasons for the refusal and the complaint mechanisms available to the individual;
- Upon request by the individual whose correction request has been refused, take reasonable steps to associate a statement with the personal information that the individual believes it to be inaccurate, out-of-date, incomplete, irrelevant or misleading;
- Respond within 14 calendar days to these requests; and
- Complete all actions free of charge.

Correcting at ETAS Group’s initiative

We take reasonable steps to correct personal information we hold in cases where we are satisfied that the personal information held is inaccurate, out-of-date, incomplete, irrelevant or misleading (that is, the information is faulty). This awareness may occur through collection of updated information, in notification from third parties or through other means.

‘Request for Records Access’ Procedure

Individuals or third parties may at any stage request access to records held by ETAS Group relating to their personal information. The following procedure is followed on each individual request for access:

1. A request for access is provided by the requester, with suitable information provided to be able to:
   - Identify the individual concerned;
   - Confirm their identity; and
   - Identify the specific information that they are requesting access to.

   This request must be in writing.

2. Upon receiving a request for access, ETAS Group then:
   - Confirms the identity of the individual or party requesting access;
   - Confirms that this individual or party is appropriately authorised to receive the information requested;
   - Searches the records that we possess or control to assess whether the requested personal information is contained in those records; and
   - Collates any personal information found ready for access to be provided.

Confiming identity

ETAS Group personnel must be satisfied that a request for personal information is made by the individual concerned, or by another person who is authorised to make a request on their behalf. The minimum amount of personal information needed to establish an individual’s identity is sought, which is generally an individual’s name, date of birth, last known address and signature.

When meeting the requesting party in person, identification may be sighted.

If confirming details over a telephone conversation, questions regarding the individual’s name, date of birth, last known address or service details may be confirmed before information is provided.

3. Once identity and access authorisation is confirmed, and personal information is collated, access is provided to the requester within 30 calendar days of receipt of the original request. We will provide access to personal information in the specific manner or format requested by the individual, wherever it is reasonable and practicable to do so, free of charge.
4. Where the requested format is not practical, we consult with the requester to ensure a format is provided that meets the requester's needs.

5. If the identity or authorisation access cannot be confirmed, or there is another valid reason why ETAS Group is unable to provide the personal information, refusal to provide access to records will be provided to the requester, in writing. Our notification will include reason(s) for the refusal, and the complaint mechanisms available to the individual. Such notifications are provided to the requester within 30 calendar days of receipt of the original request.

'Request for Records Update' Procedure

Individuals or third parties may at any stage request that their records held by ETAS Group relating to their personal information be updated. The following procedure is followed on each individual request for records updates:

1. A request for records update is provided by the requester, with suitable information provided to be able to:
   a. Identify the individual concerned;
   b. Confirm their identity; and
   c. Identify the specific information that they are requesting be updated on their records.
   This request must be in writing.

2. Upon receiving a request for records update, ETAS Group then:
   a. Confirms the identity of the individual or party to whom the record relates;
   b. Searches the records that we possess or control to assess whether the requested personal information is contained in those records; and
   c. Assesses the information already on record, and the requested update, to determine whether the requested update should proceed.

Assessing Update

ETAS Group personnel assess the relevant personal information we hold, and the requested updated information, to determine which version of the information is considered accurate, up-to-date, complete, relevant and not misleading, having regard to the purpose for which it is held.

This may include checking information against other records held by us, or within government databases, in order to complete an assessment of the correct version of the information to be used.

3. Once identity and information assessment is confirmed, personal information is:
   a. Updated, free of charge, within 14 calendar days of receipt of the original request; and
   b. Notified to any third parties of corrections made to personal information, if this information was previously provided to these parties.

4. If the identity of the individual cannot be confirmed, or there is another valid reason why ETAS Group is unable to update the personal information, refusal to update records will be provided to the requester in writing, free of charge, within 14 calendar days.

   Our notification will include the reasons for the refusal and the complaint mechanisms available to the individual.

5. Upon request by the individual whose correction request has been refused, we will also take reasonable steps to associate a 'statement' with the personal information that the individual believes it to be inaccurate, out-of-date, incomplete, irrelevant or misleading. This statement will be applied, free of charge, to all personal information relevant across ETAS Group systems within 30 calendar days of receipt of the statement request.
Privacy Complaints Procedure

If an individual feels that ETAS Group has breached its obligations in the handling, use or disclosure of their personal information, they may raise a complaint. We encourage individuals to discuss the situation with their ETAS Group representative in the first instance, before making a complaint.

The complaints handling process is as follows:

1. The individual should make the complaint including as much detail about the issue as possible, in writing to ETAS Group:

   ETAS Group
   Chief Executive Officer
   Ground Floor, 142 Hasler Road
   Osborne Park WA 6017

2. ETAS Group will investigate the circumstances included in the complaint and respond to the individual as soon as possible (and within 30 calendar days) regarding its findings and actions following this investigation.

3. Should after considering this response, if the individual is still not satisfied they make escalate their complaint directly to the Information Commissioner for investigation:

   Office of the Australian Information Commissioner
   www.oaic.gov.au
   Phone: 1300 363 992

   When investigating a complaint, the OAIC will initially attempt to conciliate the complaint, before considering the exercise of other complaint resolution powers.

4. Alternatively, if the complaint relates to a non-privacy matter, or should individuals choose to do so, a complaint may also be lodged with TAC:

   Training Accreditation Council
   Complaints Handling Policy
   Phone: 08 9441 1910